授業内容 :	In this dynamic discussion course, students practice intermediate to advanced English conversation. Every class will have a wide variety of interesting topics chosen by students. In the first hour, students can introduce any news story to their partner or group members. Students are encouraged to take notes and prepare relevant questions to ask their classmates. Students can either share the same story with new partners or introduce a different story after 15 or 20 minutes of discussion. In the second hour, students will participate in focused discussions selected by classmates in the previous week, for example, nuclear power in Japan. Students are encouraged to research the topic so that a common topic can be discussed in depth.
